

*Update-Suspect Arrested* Troopers Seek Public's Assistance in Locating Wanted Suspect – Millsboro

Millsboro – The Delaware State Police have arrested the suspect who was wanted in connection with a domestic related assault and strangulation.

The incident occurred on February 26, 2019 at approximately 8:36 p.m., when troopers responded to Oak Orchard Road, Millsboro, for a report of a verbal domestic that turned physical. It was reported that the victim was assaulted by her husband, Justin M. Shifflett, 47 of Millsboro when he grabbed her throat and struck her face. The victim attempted to call 9-1-1 but the suspect smacked the phone out her hand to keep her from calling. The suspect then took her vehicle and fled from the residence. The 48-year-old-victim sustained non-life threatening injuries and refused treatment.

On March 5, 2019, Shifflett turned himself in at Troop 4 and was charged with the following:

- Strangulation
- Assault Third Degree
- Malicious Interference with Emergency Communications

He was arraigned before the Justice of the Peace Court and committed to the Sussex Correctional Institution on $16,200.00 cash only bond.
